

Mary E. Hoyt, CPA

General Experience Highlights

As a partner in BlumShapiro's tax group, Mary focuses in the estates and trusts area, advising the firm's clients as well as working with lawyers, bankers and fellow professionals. Her expertise extends to individual taxation and gift tax issues. She has been a featured speaker at numerous seminars for clients, professionals and the general public.

Professional Education and Firm History

Mary received a Bachelor of Science in Accounting, Magna Cum Laude, from Sacred Heart University in 1979. She was licensed as a Certified Public Accountant in 1980. She started as an intern at Leask & Leask in 1978 and rose to the level of partner in 1987. She later served several years as managing partner prior to Leask & Leask's merger with BlumShapiro in late 2005.
